

All I want

words & music by Scot Cannon

All I want is someone to listen.
All I need is somebody here.
In my room, where I have no problem.
Talking out loud.
Talking clear.
I can talk here.

If you push, me a little bit.
I won't fight, I can talk.
I'll get out of it.
What's my name?
What's my favorite food?
I can tell, tell it all,
to you.

All I want is someone to listen.
All I need is somebody here.
In my room, where I have no problem.
Talking out loud.
Talking clear.
I can talk here.

Heh Louise, won't you go with me.
To the mall, or anything that's free.
They won't laugh.
They won't chase me home.
I can talk. They'll leave us alone.

When I write my words in song,
I feel better, I feel strong.
Understand that we're both the same.
It's just that sometimes,
I can't say my name.

All I want is someone to listen.
All I need is somebody here.
In my room, where I have no problem.
Talking out loud.
Talking clear.
I can talk here.
I can talk clear.
Will somebody here. Will somebody here.
